The Town of Woodstock voted to raise $1,000 for the expense of a Sesquicentennial celebration planned for this summer.

Norway voters approved an appropriation of $1,000 for millage of town records.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

I was very pleased with the fine attendance at town meeting again this year. Although the crowd did not equal the estimated 350-375 of last year, I would say that the attendance this year was between 300-325. The number of votes cast for town officers was better than most years with a total of 265 votes cast.

The next three or four years will be the most important years that have ever faced Bethel and the town will feel the implication of this next few years for a long time to come. The elected officers and citizens will be faced with huge expenditures and far reaching policy decisions. Public opinion and support will be needed by your board of selectmen and superintending school committee. You have placed these people in public office and now you should aid and support them so that they may make the decisions that will be in the best interest of the town.

The amount of money raised by taxes at town meeting was very close to the amount raised last year. There are no indications of large increases or decreases in taxable property so the tax rate for this year should be about the same as last year. The revaluation work that is to be done in 1965 will not be used for assessing purposes this year so the tax bills should be out earlier than last year.

CHAMBER MEETS AT LOCKE MILLS

The Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce met at the Locke Mills town hall for a Mt. Abram Fish and Game supper Tuesday night. Thirty members and twelve guests were present, including N. D. Shirley of Bethel; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Melville, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hathaway, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bickford, all of Locke Mills; Mrs. Ida Newton, Mrs. Jay Willard, and Mrs. Bruce Bailey, all of Bethel.

President Burdick Pierce welcomed everyone to the meeting and expressed the hope that the Chamber will grow in the future.

Addison Saunders outlined plans for the forthcoming winter carnival and called on committee heads to explain their progress.

It was decided to have the Chamber formulate a definite opinion on the forthcoming School District issue.

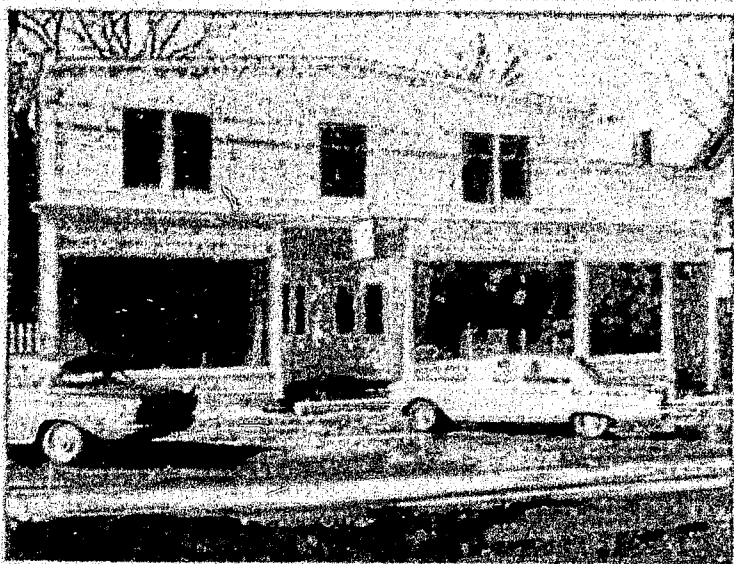

John Tebbets and Lester Bickford then explained and conducted a tour through the Ekeo-Tebbetts plant.

Above, on the left, is the new location of the Shoe Rack operated by Mrs. Clarence Rolfe. This store offers a large variety of footwear for men, women, and children as well as an attractive line of women's and girls' clothing. The building, owned by the Mundt-Allen Post American Legion since 1946, has been in past years a hardware shop, shoe and dry goods store and the extreme right portion was for many years the shoe repair shop of "Tommy" LaRue. The part of the building not used by the Shoe Rack will continue to be used by the Legion for their meetings, supper, etc.

MEETING HELD TO DISCUSS AREA SCHOOL PROBLEMS

Representatives of towns in the Bethel area started action last Saturday afternoon toward investigating the feasibility of forming a school administrative district.

The move, which has been studied by Bethel officials for some time, came to a head last week on announcement that trustees of Gould Academy are contemplating an offer of the institution as a college branch of the University of Maine.

Norman I. Green, chairman of the Bethel Board of Selectmen, conducted the session attended by approximately 50 selectmen, school officials and school committee members from Greenwood, Andover, Woodstock, Newry, Bethel, and other area towns.

The meeting was held to secure the feelings of the towns involved in a potential district. Alternate plans, one involving Bethel, Woodstock, Newry and Andover, and the other adding Andover were presented along with breakdowns on town valuation, number of students, salaries and other issues.

It was suggested that each town set up a study committee comprised of representatives from selectmen, school committee and persons involved in preliminary study. From these committees, a steering committee could be formed.

TOWN TURNS DOWN CURFEW; APPROVES FIRE STATION; RAISES $284,067 FOR 1965

At a three hour session Monday evening Bethel voters approved appropriations of $284,067 of which $36,000 is to be taken from Surplus.

In the election held during the day at the Community Room the following officers were selected by the voters: Selectmen and Assessors for three years, James Hutcheson and Michael Stowell; School Committee for three years, Dexter Stowell and John Tebbets; Fire Ward, Rodrick McMillin; Town Clerk, Violet Bennett.

The salary of town officers was voted to be $100 each for Selectmen, Assessors and Town Clerk and $35 for the Health Officer.

It was the decision of the voters in attendance to continue the employment of a night officer for the ensuing year.

After some comment the sum of $100 was approved for Civil Defense.

After comments by the Chairman of the School Committee, Dexter Stowell, relative to future plans for secondary education, the $167,000 was raised for school maintenance.

The Selectmen were authorized to appoint a committee of from three to five members to make a study of the Dutch Elm Disease problem and report at the 1966 annual meeting. An amount of $5,000 was appropriated for prevention and control of Dutch Elm Disease.

An amount of $1,500 was approved for the revaluation of residential and farm property in town.

The article concerning a penalty of not less than $500, nor more than $2500, for discharge of a firearm in the urban part area was approved.

Amendments to the Zoning Ordinances were approved after an unsuccessful attempt to pass over the articles.

The meeting voted to allow the Planning Board to contract for the preparation of a Comprehensive Plan for the town, and approved $3,125 for the project.

The article providing for a curfew for all persons under 17 years of age was defeated.

The Selectmen were granted authority to negotiate a Federal Government loan for the purpose of a sewerage survey.

After lengthy discussion including comments by the architect, Donald Morrill; Robert Hastings and Richard Waldron of the Budget Committee; Carroll Valentine of the Planning Board and many others, the article concerning the construction of a fire station, community room and town offices was defeated 100 yes to 117 no, by written ballot. The article to build a fire station only was approved by the voters.

MAINE BOARD OF EDUC. SPONSOR U. S. LABOR DEPT. PROJECT

Secretary of Labor W. Wirtz has announced that $7755 has been provided by the State of Maine Board of Education to develop Neighborhood Youth Corps training projects for youth from predominantly rural areas of the state. The projects are intended specifically to provide work training experience for in-school and out-of-school youth between the ages of 16 and 21.

The Neighborhood Youth Corps is not to be confused with the Job Corps, administered by the Office of Economic Opportunity, which involves conservation work in camps.

The NYC, administered by the U. S. Labor Department, is designed to place unemployed youth from low income families in part-time jobs that will enable them to stay in school or return to school, or in jobs of up to 32 hours per week where they will receive constructive and rewarding work experience that will increase their employability.

"There is," Secretary Wirtz said, "no more vital group in the American society today than our young people, too many of whom are on not just one-way streets, and on dead-end streets. Life is not leading any place right now for about 750,000 American boys and girls. Through the Neighborhood Youth Corps we are trying to change this."

Total cost of the program, which is the first NYC program for the State of Maine is $7755, $6950 of which will be contributed by the Federal Government.

SPOON & HOE 4-H CLUB

The Spoon & Hoe 4-H Club met Feb. 27, 1965 at the home of their local leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bailey. We didn't have a regular meeting today. Our leader discussed our club tour and decided that we would go to the Citizen Office and see them print papers. We had the rest of our demonstrations and Joe Bailey won today. Joe Bailey, Peggy Baker, Jimmy Dock, and Roberta Anderson will be going to Mexico, Maine, to do their demonstrations over again on March 3. Committees appointed: Cindy Crockett, Clyde Crockett, David Crockett, Refreshments. Club Reporter, Sally Deegan, RFD 1, Bethel.

Jim Farnsworth, whose film "Skiing Unlimited" will be shown at 8:30 p. m., March 13 at the Bingham Auditorium as a feature of the Bethel Winter Carnival.

The next thing on the schedule reminds us that, just in case local people get a feeling of being watched next Friday and Saturday, it just might be true.

Jim Farnsworth is not just sending his film "Skiing Unlimited," for someone else to show at Bingham Auditorium, Saturday evening at 8:30—he's coming himself, and he's bringing that will looking Sk-rama camera along with him. The object is to find out just how we look while doing what we call be doing, and maybe next year his audience will be paying money to find out the same thing.

Speaking of money, get your tickets for the show in advance, especially if not a student, or under 14, it will be a fifty cent saving for you. Everyone can be a salesman on this project, too, not necessarily Chamber members.

The object of this carnival isn't to fill the Chamber coffers but to make a pleasant diversion for ourselves and introduce a few new friends to the area. Everybody needs friends, sometimes they come back to live and pay taxes. Remember that, and wear a welcome smile, and pitch in.

The presses are rolling, and there's scarcely time to tell about Sunday, but that is the time to collect — free pancake breakfast at each ski area, and before the Fun Parade on Skis. Some families already have decided on the eye-catching costumes they will wear for that. Then some lucky local winners.

Bethel's school debts amount to approximately $35,000 and Newry, $20,000. Andover's financial status was not available but it was believed that there is no debt there.

Based on present enrollment figures in the town's involved, it was stated a 500-student school could be built for $750,000 with facilities for home economics, vocational shops, physical education. The construction was based on latest State Department of Education estimates of $1,500 per pupil. Present enrollment of the entire five towns for a high school was estimated at 460.

"Committees will have to determine the rate of growth in the various towns populations before actually deciding how big a high school should be," Maxey said.

State education officials in Augusta have advised that the planning program should be underway immediately and open for construction by the spring of 1966.

A second meeting of the group will be held March 29 at Bethel's Crescent Park School.

EVENING EXTENSION

The Bethel Evening Extension will meet Tuesday, March 9, at 7:30 p. m. at the Home Ec. Cottage. Slides of India will be shown. These slides were taken by Wayne Thurston of Norway, Maine.

Anyone interested in pillow smoking should bring one yard of one inch square checked gingham and embroidery floss.

The 25c per member assessment is due. This money is to be used for County-National and International Projects. Sirdie Vachon, Mary Kendall, Caroling Merrill and Alberta Merrill are on refreshment committee. "Foods Familiar to India" will be served.

BETHEL LIBRARY

Adult Fiction:
"Daily and Sunday," by Richard Powell. A novel about a big city newspaper in a period of management crisis following the death of the brilliantly aggressive publisher.
"Full Faith and Five," by John Stewart Carter. A journey of self-discovery with a narrator who recalls with mature understanding the forebears who have influenced his own development.
"Profile of Old New England," by Lewis A. Taft. A selection of early Yankee tales, droll, humorous, grim, sad, informative and all entertaining.
"A Covenant With Death," by Stephen Becker. A story of a murder trial in the Southwest in 1923, told by an elderly judge as he looks back in memory upon his own performance at the age of 29 when he faced legal decisions in the case.
"Wagon West," by Leslie Turner White. A fast paced exciting novel about a Boston doctor's adventure in the old West.
Non-Fiction:
"Reminiscences," by General Douglas MacArthur. Written by his own hand, and finished only a few weeks before his death this book spans more than half a century of modern history. It is a portrait of our most decorated military hero and is a deeply moving final testament to a life of duty, honor and service.
"Dying to Smoke," by Robert Osborn and Fred W. Benton, M. D. Directed primarily to young people, an artist and a doctor present the most graphic statement to date against smoking. The book expresses a medical conviction that is being put more and more strongly to the public in our national magazines, and is being more and more deeply researched by our Federal Government.
"Children For Adoption," by Pearl S. Buck. A report on the current facts and practices of the adoption world, and an expression of the author's anger at the prevailing conditions. Miss Buck has herself raised five adopted children and has

FROM OUR FILES

10 YEARS AGO

Ten years ago, the people of the town of Bethel, Maine, were celebrating the 10th anniversary of the opening of the new Bethel High School. The school was dedicated on February 29, 1955, and the celebration was held in the gymnasium of the school. The principal, Mr. J. H. Smith, gave the invocation, and the school choir sang the national anthem. The principal then gave a short address, and the school was officially opened.

William H. Hargham, 2nd, died February 17 at Miami Beach, Florida. He had been a resident of Bethel since 1911.

South Paris won over Lisbon in the final game for the Western Maine Basketball Championship played at the Legion Army. The score was 24-13.

Structural steel had arrived for the three span bridge at Rumford Point.

The Eastern U. S. Ski Meet was held at Rumford, Rhode Island, and the Eastern U. S. Class A ski jumping championship—distance 186 feet—Roger Dunn, 15 year old Lebanon, N. H., high school sophomore, won the Class B Eastern crown.

Deaths: Charles H. Martin, West Paris; Harry F. Eldredge, North Haven, aged 51 years 20 YEARS AGO

The Office of Defense Transportation advised a ban on conventions and group meetings. Farm and Home Week at the University of Maine was cancelled.

Gasoline checks were reported lost. Stakes were located to one station.

A 5 lb. cat and 3 lb. dog were impounded with Earl Davis as owner.

The Maple Sugar Producers of Oxford County held a meeting at the Free Hall, South Paris.

Deaths: Jean Frances Rich and Clarence W. Hall 30 YEARS AGO
